Notice of Consultation with the Membership of The Key First Nation

Band Council has determined that it is appropriate for The Key First Nation to enact a comprehensive Constitution that includes provision for governance, elections, eligibility to be a Member (Membership Code), and similar matters respecting our Inherent and Treaty Rights.

A consultation meeting with Membership will be held on September 19, 2019, at 10 am at The Key First Nation Saulteaux Plex or the purpose of Band Council consulting with the Membership of The Key First Nation to consider, select and adopt a process for the drafting and enactment of a Constitution and to receive suggestions from the Membership for the content of a Constitution.
